

Go to Product page

Datasheet for ABIN1536514
Western Membrane Forceps

Overview

Quantity:	1 pack
Application:	Western Blotting (WB)

Product Details

Characteristics:	Key Features: Easy Grip Convenient Size: 107×8×1 mm (Length×Width×Ply) Unique Design: Each pair is made by the curved screw method, giving it a sure grip, and allowing it to nip membrane without damaging it. Resilient Composition: These forceps are highly resistant to corrosion. High Longevity: The product is insensitive to fatigue and never loses its elasticity. Rust-Free: The forceps are made from No. 304 stainless steel. Note For best results, we highly recommend the Western Membrane Forceps and the Western Wash Box for use with western blots and other projects. This precise and reliable equipment package helps to reduce variability and avoid errors.
------------------	--

Components:	10 forceps
-------------	------------

Application Details

Comment:	The Western Membrane Forceps are crafted from No. 304 stainless steel. They are resistant to acid, alkali and organic impregnant. You will find these forceps a handy and reliable addition to any study, from small experiments to large projects.
----------	---

Restrictions:	For Research Use only
---------------	-----------------------

Handling

Storage: RT